INDIA

IS ONE OF THE MOST SIGNIFICANT MEDICAL TOURISM DESTINATION TODAY.

Medical tourism industry in India at US $3 billion is one of the fastest growing sectors. UK, US, UAE, Oman along with Russia, Bangladesh, Afghanistan & other Commonwealth countries are the most regular visitors to the subcontinent to avail both modern as well as traditional treatments in medicine. Indian Medical tourism is slated to grow to $7-8 billion by 2020.

According to the Confederation of Indian Industries (CII), the primary reason that attracts medical value travel to India is cost-effectiveness, and treatment from accredited facilities at par with developed countries at much lower cost. The Medical Tourism Market Report: 2015 found that India was one of the lowest cost and highest quality of all medical tourism destinations, it offers wide variety of procedures at about one-tenth the cost of similar procedures in the United States.

Traditionally, the United States and the United Kingdom have been the largest source countries for medical tourism to India. However, according to a CII-Grant Thornton report released in October 2015 the share of many other countries have increased primarily due to their close proximity with India & better health infrastructure being offered. Countries from the Middle East including have seen a substantial increase of travellers in this sector.

India is known in particular for heart surgery, hip resurfacing and other areas of advanced medicine.
